GIS NEWS BITS

GIS HIRES 3 NEW EMPLOYEES MEET JARET, RICK AND GREG

Jaret Siegfried began his career at GIS in early August . He is learning the ins and outs of the warehouse and fabrication end of GIS.

Jaret is from Sewickley and has lived in Western Pennsylvania his entire life. He loves to hunt and fish.

He also enjoys spending time with Buds his two year old black lab. Buds was dressed up as Steeler Troy Palamalu for Halloween. So needless to say Jaret is also a big Steeler Fan!

Welcome to GIS, Jaret.

Rick Weismantle, like Jaret, also began in August at GIS and is learning the workings of the warehouse and fabrication end.

Rick is from Carnegie and lives there with his wife. The newlyweds, they were married early this year, are expecting their first baby next Spring.

Rick enjoys going to the gym and playing hockey. He is a volunteer soccer coach for 13-17 year olds in the Sto-Rox league. Rick enjoys working with the teenagers. He also is a big Steeler and Penguin fan! Welcome to GIS, Rick.

Greg Jefferies started at GIS in October. He was hired primarily to be a GIS truck driver. When he is not out on the road meeting customers and making deliveries, Greg is in the warehouse helping out.

Greg is originally from California. A job transfer brought him to Western Pennsylvania several years ago and he stayed after that company closed their doors. .

Greg is married and has a daughter who is 16. In his spare time he tinkers with computers. He loves anything to do with computers and has several at his home.

Welcome to GIS, Greg.
